A Court of Silver Flames—Sarah J. Maas 2021-02-16 Sarah J. Maas's sexy, richly imagined series continues with the journey of Feyre's fairy sister, Nesta. Nesta Archeron has always been prickly-pretty, quick to anger, and slow to forgive. And even since being forged into the Cauldron and becoming High Fae against her will, she's struggled to find a place for herself within the strange, deadly world she inhabits. Worse, she can't seem to move past the horrors of the war with Fyrbre and all she lost in it. The one person who ignites her temper more than any other is Cassian, the battle-scarred warrior whose position in Rhysand and Feyre's Night Court keeps him constant in Nesta's orbit. But her temper isn't the only thing Cassian ignites. The fire between them is undeniable, and only burns hotter as they are forced into close quarters with each other. Meanwhile, the treacherous human queens who returned to the Continent during the last war have forged a dangerous new alliance, threatening the fragile peace that has settled over the realms. And the key to halting them might very well rely on Cassian and Nesta facing their haunting pasts. Against the sweeping backdrops of a world secured by war and plagued with uncertainty. Nesta and Cassian battle monsters from within and without as they search for acceptance and healing in each other's arms.
